

Enthusiastic Psychology graduate with an impressive academic background and comprehensive skill set; underpinned by industry experience working with children and young people in multifaceted settings necessitating self-motivation and a positive response to pressure. Strong team player with excellent interpersonal communication and organisational skills; energetic, dynamic, relishes challenges and adopts a holistic approach to problem solving. Proficient in the use of MS Office suite, including: Word, and Access. Outside of an academic environment, holds a keen interest in different cultures and enjoys travelling.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

B.Sc. (2:1 Hons) Psychology 2007 – 2010
University of Hull

- Improved awareness surrounding psychological investigations, research methods and statistics, cognitive psychology, social / developmental psychology, psychobiology and psychological measurement.
- Cemented knowledge surrounding the ideas, theories, methods and debates in psychology.
- Called upon skills needed to assess evidence, including quantitative and qualitative data.
- Elective modules, included: Understanding Crime and Punishment, Children with Special Needs, Education Psychology, Forensic Psychology, Gender and Social Psychology and Suggestion and Suggestibility.

A-Level Psychology, Health and Social Care and General Studies 2005 – 2007

AS-Level Physical Education 2005 – 2007

GCSE 8, including: English, Science, Maths and Sociology 2000 – 2005

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Hull Collegiate School 2010

- Carried out research with pupils into memory training games; harnessing strong time management skills.
- Ensured adherence to ethical guideline; dealing tactfully and diplomatically with any arising concerns.
- Facilitated the timely completion of ad-hoc administrative functions.

Paisley Primary School 2009

- Observed a child with special educational needs and interactions with their Teaching Assistant, focusing on any barriers the child faced with regards to education.
- Identified and promoted opportunities to help the child overcome their educational problems.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Internet Assessor (freelance) 2011
(Details limited due to non-disclosure)

- Currently contributing towards making internet search more exciting, relevant and interesting for end-users – harnessing creativity to report on internet content quality and associated evaluations.

Project Worker; voluntary 2011 – 2012
Hull Families Project

- Primarily collaborated with a multifaceted team, offering support to families facing difficulties; making a positive difference to local families.
- Showcased commitment towards on-going personal and professional development having enrolled for a variety of courses, including: Level 1 Safeguarding.

General Assistant 2006 – 2012
Kexgill Student Accommodation

- Promoted the delivery of service excellence in the cleaning / maintenance of student accommodation, alongside energy, drive and enthusiasm; resulting being invited back to work every summer between 2006 and 2012.
- Adopted a collaborative approach as part of a team.
- Demonstrated a positive response to pressure to meet often stringent time constraints and deadlines in a fast-paced working environment.
- Showcased significant versatility and a flair for adaptability to satisfy ever-changing demands.

PERSONAL DETAILS

Nationality: British

Marital Status: Single

Driving Licence: Full, clean, UK

REFERENCES AVAILABLE ON REQUEST